Chapter X

Licence for hat or market, dangerous and offensive trades by Panchayat Samiti

51. Application for licence. – (1) The owner or the lessee of an existing hat or market or an owner or a lessee of land intending to establish a hat or market thereon shall make an application in Form 5 to the Panchayat Samiti for licence. The owner or the lessee of an existing hat or market shall make such an application for licence within the period specified by the Panchayat Samiti in conformity with the terms of the bye-law framed for the purpose under section 223.

(2) If the hat or market, existing or intended to be established, consists of shops or stalls exceeding thirty in number for sale of goods, the application for licence for such hat or market shall be accompanied by a layout plan showing the following particulars:-

- (a) the number and location of shops or stalls, the roads and pathways;
- (b) the number and location of sources of drinking water;
- (c) the number and location of latrines and urinals;
- (d) the place for dumping of refuse, rubbish or sewage;
- (e) the lighting arrangement made or envisaged;
- (f) the arrangement for prevention and control of fire hazard;
- (g) the parking place for vehicles;
- (h) the drainage system for waste water and other accumulated water;
- (i) the venue where enquiries may be made and complaints may be lodged.

52. Grant of licence for hat or market. – (1) Before a licence is granted for such a hat or market, the layout plan where applicable, shall require inspection and vetting by the Block Sanitary Inspector or Sub-Assistant Engineer posted at the Block or any other authorised officer of the Panchayat Samiti hereinafter collectively referred to as the authorised officer. If any alteration or improvement in the layout plan is suggested, no licence shall be granted until and unless the said layout plan is revised so as to include such alteration and improvement.

(2) If the licence applied for is for an existing hat or market consisting of shops or stalls exceeding thirty, a time-limit shall be fixed by the Panchayat Samiti for the applicant to give effect to the alterations or improvements suggested by the authorised officer of the Panchayat Samiti and the licence shall not be granted until such alteration and improvements are effected within the time-limit.

53. Terms and conditions of licence for hat or market. – (1) The licensee of a hat or market shall be required to make proper arrangements for-

- (a) clearance and drainage of water or rain water from the site;
- (b) supply, where necessary, of water suitable for drinking and cooking purposes in sufficient quantities for the need of the persons attending the hat or market;
- (c) adequate disinfections of such water-supply with such disinfectant as may be necessary at regular interval, especially when any contamination is suspected or detected;
- (d) construction and maintenance, where necessary, of sufficient number of sanitary latrines and urinals for use of the persons attending the hat or market with such separate accommodation for each sex as may be directed by the authorised officer referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 52 ;
- (e) collection, removal and disposal of refuse, rubbish, sewage or night soil at such intervals as the authorised officer referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 52, may direct;
- (f) bringing to the notice of the Sanitary Inspector or such other officer as may be authorised by the Sub-divisional Health Officer or by the Panchayat Samiti in this behalf, of any case of cholera, smallpox or any other infectious or contagious disease occurring within the precincts of a hat or market;
- (g) providing sufficient lighting arrangement for every part of the hat or market at night;
- (h) providing sufficient water and other materials and equipments as may be advised for prevention and control, when necessary, of fire hazard.

(2) No person shall display or sell in a hat or market any article of food such as milk or milk products, edible oil, butter, ghee, molasses, sugar, sweetmeats, except in covered receptacles and free from contamination by dust and flies.

(3) No person suffering from any contagious disease shall prepare or help in the preparation of or handle for sale of any food article in a hat or market.

(4) No sanitary latrine or urinal shall be constructed or allowed to stand within a radius of twenty metres from any place in a hat or market where articles of food are stored or displayed for sale or where any source of water supply exists or is envisaged.

(5) No person shall store or sell or display for sale in a hat or market any meat, fish, vegetable, fruit or other articles of food or drink which is in a state of decomposition or which is adulterated or contaminated and unfit for human consumption.

(6) Adequate safeguards shall be provided for and good practices should be enforced by the licensee against an outbreak of fire in a hat or market.

54. Penalty for establishing or holding hat or market without licence or for violation of conditions for licence. – Where a hat or a market is established or run without a licence or in violation of any condition of licence, the owner or the lessee of such hat or market shall be liable for such fine as the Panchayat Samiti may provide under the bye-laws adopted under section 223 subject to the maximum amount of fine fixed by the State Government.

55. Form of licence for hat or market. – The licence granted by a Panchayat Samiti for a hat or market shall be in Form 5A.

56. Fees for licence for hat or market. – The owner or the lessee of a hat or market shall pay for the licence or for its renewal to the Panchayat Samiti such fee, not exceeding the amount as the Panchayat Samiti may, upon considering the extent of area and nature and volume of business transacted or likely to be transacted in the hat or market, prescribe in the bye-laws adopted under section 223.

57. Application for Licence of dangerous and offensive trade. – The owner of an existing business or a person intending to establish a business declared by notification to be dangerous or offensive by the State Government shall make an application in Form 6 to the Panchayat Samiti for licence within the period specified by the Panchayat Samiti in terms of the bye-laws adopted under section 223. After expiry of such period as mentioned in the licence an application for its renewal shall be made in Form 6A.

58. Grant of licence for dangerous and offensive trade. – (1) The grant of licence for dangerous and offensive trade by the Panchayat Samiti relating to or dealing with Kerosene, Petroleum, Naphtha or any other inflammable oil or spirit shall be in consistence with the provisions of the Petroleum Act, 1934 and no such licence shall be granted by the Panchayat Samiti unless the said provisions have been complied with by the applicant for licence.

(2) The grant of licence by the Panchayat Samiti connected with the burning or baking of bricks or tiles shall be in conformity with the provisions of the West Bengal Land and Land Reforms Manual, 1991 and no such licence shall be granted by the Panchayat Samiti unless the said provisions have been complied with by the applicant for licence and until the permit referred to in the said Manual has been obtained:

Provided that prior to granting of any licence for running dangerous and offensive trade, the Panchayat Samiti shall cause an enquiry into the matter by an officer not below the rank of an Extension Officer.

59. Terms and conditions of licence. – The licence issued for a dangerous or offensive trade shall be subject to the following terms and conditions: –

- (i) the place may be inspected at any reasonable hour of any working day by the Sabhapati or the Sahakari Sabhapati of the Panchayat Samiti, Karmadhyaksha of Janaswastha O Paribesh Sthayee Samiti and Khudra Shilpa, Bidyut O Achiracharit Sthayee Samiti, Executive Officer of the Panchayat Samiti or any other authorised officer, not below the rank of an Extension Officer;
- (ii) manufacturing, processing or any other work carried on under the licence in the specified premises shall be maintained in such a manner so as not to cause any injury, danger, annoyance or offence to the sense of sight, smell or hearing of persons residing in the neighbourhood;
- (iii) the licence shall relate only to such trade or business as is specified in it;
- (iv) the licence shall relate only to such place as is specified in it;
- (v) there shall be satisfactory arrangement for drainage of waste water and effluents, disposal of solid wastes and control of gaseous emissions to prevent nuisance in the place and its neighbourhood;
- (vi) the licence shall be liable to be cancelled in the event of contravention of any of the conditions laid down in clauses (i) to (v).

60. Fees for licence for dangerous or offensive trade. – The licensee shall pay for the licence or for the renewal of licence, to the Panchayat Samiti such fee, not exceeding the amount prescribed in rule 63, as the Panchayat Samiti may upon considering the volume and environmental impact of the business, provide in the bye-laws adopted under section 223.
